

Date: 21.01.2022

NOTICE

With reference to Medical Counseling Committee Notice No. Ref.U-12021/06/2021-MEC Dated 21.01.2022. Keeping in view, the prevailing adverse situation of COVID pandemic, candidates have been allowed by Medical Counseling Committee, Ministry of Health and Family Welfare to report to institute in Hybrid Mode i.e candidates who have been allotted seats by MCC in PG Counseling 2021 can report Online/Offline mode at the college.

Candidates are required to follow these guidelines given below:

1. Candidates who are opting for online reporting can join by sending confirmatory email regarding acceptance of seats and uploading scanned copies of relevant documents and bank receipt of payment made in Account of “Hamdard Institute of Medical Sciences & Research” as provided on website www.himsr.co.in. However, kindly note those candidates who want to give willingness for upgradation for Round-2 while retaining Round-1 seat, have to “Report Physically” at the HIMSR.
2. All admission made online will be provisional and will be considered final only on verification of documents at the time of physical joining and medical fitness at the medical college.
3. Candidate who join their seat of Round-1 and later want to resign the same can do so till 4:00 PM of 3rd February, 2022. Please note to avoid uncertainty/ technical glitches or any uncertain event candidates are advised to resign before 12:00 Noon of 3rd February, 2022. HIMSR will not be responsible for any uncertain event.

Prof.(Dr.) Amit Sharma
In-charge, Admission & Examination
HIMSR & HAHC Hospital