

Medical Ethics

- Name of Supervisor/Guide: Dr. Aqsa Shaikh
- Name of Co-Supervisor/Guide: Prof. Musharraf Husain, Prof. Sabina Khan, Dr. Pratibha Panjjar
- Department: Medical Education Unit
- Name of Elective/Course: Medical Ethics
- Block: Block 1
- No. of Students (Intake capacity): 5
- Learning Objectives:
 - To be able to discuss the basic theories of Medical Ethics
 - To be able to discuss the basic principles of Medical Ethics
 - To demonstrate the application of ethical principles in clinical scenarios
 - To explain the various facets of research ethics
- Topics:
 - Introduction to Medical Ethics
 - Theories, principles, and philosophies of Bioethics
 - Medicine and Law
 - Utilitarianism, deontology, virtue ethics
 - Autonomy, beneficence, non-maleficence, Justice
 - Bodily Integrity
 - Ethics of end-of-life care including palliative care
 - Research Ethics
 - Informed consent
 - National Ethical Guidelines and GCP
 - Clinical Ethics
 - Organ Donation
 - Euthanasia
 - Advance Directive
- Assessment mechanism:
 - Logbook
 - Day to day interaction
 - Organising and facilitating Ethics workshop